About Us

York Region Educational Services (YRES) is a charitable non-profit organization dedicated to providing accessible educational resources for all ages! YRES cultivates numerous avenues for youth to engage in volunteerism and contribute meaningfully to our community.

2024 Volunteer Fair

YRES is hosting a Volunteer Fair, a free event open to all, offering opportunities for meaningful community involvement. Partnering with Volunteer Connect York Region, Pledges for Change, and Volunteer Toronto, the fair will feature numerous organizations.

As a sponsor, you'll have a unique chance to positively impact lives and support the community. Join us at the YRES 2024 Volunteer Fair to promote engagement and gain exposure to a wide audience. Together, we can make a lasting impact!

Empowering Communities: Volunteer Highlights

We are committed to enhancing the program, expanding partnerships, and delivering greater community value with the support of our enthusiastic volunteers.

Tanya, Volunteer Manager

“The volunteering program was very fun and it helped me with public speaking. I think it’s a very good program.”

- Volunteer Winnie

“The program was very eventful and I learned a lot about how to communicate with young children and the meaning of resolving conflicts. I also understand how to manage various scenarios and camp emergencies.”

- Volunteer Darwyn

Featuring volunteers at Thornlea Secondary School
